[REDACTED]

A sensitive document classified as CONFIDENTIAL dated 3 March 1956, referred to in (b), concerning the situation in Asia and the Far East, which could no longer be handled as a sensitive document, since it is publicly available and ends in which the USSR has also participated. Despite the confidential character of this document and its former classification, public British attacks in the cold war on Soviet leaders would be used in order to avoid conflict through inadvertent trade relationships.
